

WebCE® Now Offers Insurance Pre-License Education Courses for Guam

New U.S. territory of Guam Life/Health, Property/Casualty, and Adjuster Insurance Pre-License Education Requirements Can be Satisfied Through WebCE.

Dallas, TX, October 1, 2022 — WebCE®, an industry leader in online professional education, now offers insurance pre-license education courses for insurance professionals in the U.S. territory of Guam. These include courses for Life and Health (L&H), Property and Casualty (P&C), and Adjuster licenses.

The Guam Department of Revenue and Taxation will begin requiring pre-license education December 1, 2022. All candidates wanting to obtain a Life and Health, Property and Casualty or Adjuster license in Guam will need to complete an exam prep course covering topics on the exam content outline. Upon completion of an exam prep course a certificate of completion will be issued for candidates to present before taking the Guam licensing exam at the University of Guam.

WebCE is currently the only professional education company to offer insurance exam prep course packages in Guam. In 2018, WebCE began offering insurance continuing education (CE) courses in Guam, the first professional education company to do so. With the addition of exam prep courses, WebCE now provides producers in Guam with online insurance education courses for every stage of the professional lifecycle.

"WebCE is excited to be a pre-license education provider for aspiring insurance professionals in Guam," says Arthur Carvajal, WebCE Insurance Exam Prep Product Line Manager. "We are committed to serving professionals with quality education products at every stage of their professional lifecycle."

As part of the course packages, Guam pre-license education from WebCE includes access to powerful study tools like WebCE's Exam Tutor exam simulator, Flash Tutor online flashcards and study planners.

Guam's insurance pre-license education course packages for Adjusters, Life and Health and Property and Casualty are currently available in the WebCE catalog.

About WebCE

WebCE is an industry leader in online education and training for business professionals. Founded in 1997, WebCE has delivered millions of online continuing education, exam prep and training courses to professionals nationwide. WebCE is a four-time winner of the Best Companies to Work for in Texas award. For more information, visit www.WebCE.com.